3. Main Educational Problems of Somalia:

During the chaos and disorder following the collapse of former regime in early 1991, the formal education system in Somalia, which has been institutionally weak compared to world standards, was completely destroyed. Inter-clan hostility has always been a source of conflict for the country and is responsible for nearly two decades of civil unrest that completely disabled the Somali nation and its educational system. All the public schools, vocational training centers, high Institutes and universities had been destroyed, the educational infrastructure and facilitations had disappeared, the teachers divided in to two groups, some fled from the country and became refugees either in the neighboring countries or in the countries of the western world; while some others were affected by the inter-clan fighting and became internally displaced people, and this forced most of the Somali children to embrace the gun and participate the inter-clan based fighting. However, what is worth to be mentioned is the effort and sacrifice still being made by concerned intellectual Somalis to re-establish the education system.
The main educational problems of Somalia include:

1. Insufficient permanent learning spaces;
2. Short of qualified/trained teachers having insufficient payment of incentives;
3. Inadequate teaching, learning and recreational materials;
4. Dwindling chances of teacher training including topics such as pedagogy, inclusive education, human rights education, and psycho-social care;
5. Demanding CEC and education management training system to raise the capacity to manage the schools and integrate school safety DRR practices into the running of each school;
6. Lack of emergency education preparedness plans, activities and budgets into the overall national education sector development plan and regional variants; and
7. Poor capacity of regional and national education authorities, a need to improve their planning, monitoring and budgetary capacity to provide education in emergencies.

It took us two months to get suitable office space for Mogadishu operations. Price of office rent gone up day after day from $150 to $250 per room after security situation of the city was mainly restored by the government and after the election of the new president that pushed international community to land the city and implement projects. Now we hired a new office and setup installation was finalized on 30th December 2012.

EFASOM did pay office rent for Galkayo office from October to December 2012 with the limited resources we had in this project.

7. The Forthcoming Activities

The close-out of the project officially was done on 31st December 2012, the last day of the contract. We will send a request for reimbursement on the last installment to the donor very soon.

The forthcoming activities will be submission of a 2-year project proposal, budget forecast, and a logical framework to GCE, and ACEA for their review and approval.
